Montgomery County, Virginia – Montgomery County’s Public Information Office won a 2011 National Association of County Information Officers (NACIO) Award of Excellence in the Superior category for the Fiscal Year 2011 Annual Report.

The NACIO Awards of Excellence is a nationwide competition. Each entry was judged for its originality, effectiveness, results, degree of effort and difficulty, overall quality and strength of impression. Montgomery County’s Fiscal Year 2011 Annual Report scored the Superior award – a top honor, just below Best of Class (presented to the best submission in each category) and Best of Show (presented to the best submission in the competition).

Montgomery County’s Fiscal Year 2011 Annual Report highlighted accomplishments by County departments and constitutional officers using a cloud-hosted program called Prezi, an interactive presentation tool. It is easy to read, incorporates multimedia aspects and provides updates on ongoing County initiatives.
